

transportation both road and rail, power and telecommunications and also the development of selected townships outside Delhi through extensive land acquisition and provision of internal and external services, housing and economic activities of industries, wholesale trade and commerce.

This strategy is backed up by an investment programme covering both the Central and State Sectors. While the State Sector programmes consist mainly of the land acquisition and provision of local infrastructure for the new townships, those under the Central Sector include the development of core infrastructure components such as improvement of rail network, expansion/upgradation of road network, construction of expressways, power generation and its transmission and distribution and better telecommunication facilities throughout the region.

Proposals for IX Plan are yet to be firmed up and, therefore, financial allocations and citywise details are not available.
